The Love-Girl and the Innocent was a play by Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn, that the BBC transferred to the screen under the steady eye of Alan.

'The Love-Girl and the Innocent' is a brilliant play about the inhuman world of the [Stalinist] camps, that have their own rules, and where nothing of the world. His play, The Love Girl and the Innocent, paints a vivid picture of prisoners' lives in one of these camps, but being written for more than
